

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORTATION OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

Company Profile

The Ministry of Transportation of the Republic of Indonesia is a ministry within the Government of Indonesia in charge of transportation affairs. The Ministry of which since July 27, 2016, has been held by Budi Karya Sumadi.

The Ministry of Transportation has the task of carrying out affairs in the field of transportation within the government to assist the President in administering state government. In carrying out its duties, the Ministry of Transportation carries out the following functions:

1. formulation, stipulation, and implementation of policies in the field of transportation;
2. management of state property/wealth which is the responsibility of the Ministry of Transportation;
3. supervision of the implementation of tasks within the Ministry of Transportation;
4. implementation of technical guidance and supervision of the implementation of the affairs of the Ministry of Transportation in the regions; and
5. implementation of technical activities on a national scale.

The Ministry of Transportation has a vision, namely the realization of reliable, competitive, and providing added value transportation services.

The mission of the Ministry of Transportation is:

1. Maintaining the service level of transportation facilities and infrastructure;
2. Carry out consolidation through restructuring and reform in the field of transportation facilities and infrastructure;
3. Improving public accessibility to transportation services
4. Improving the quality of transportation services that are reliable and provide added value.

Website Link: <http://www.dephub.go.id/>

